Digging Deeper: Group Questions & Personal Reflection

1. Read Psalm 23. This is one of the most popular Psalms in the entire book of Psalms. Have you heard this Psalm before? If so, where have you heard it read or preached?
2. What are some characteristics of sheep? Do they need a shepherd? What happens to them if they are left alone? What are some characteristics of a shepherd? Why are they needed?
3. Under what circumstances would you be willing to surrender your desire to lead and submit yourself to follow someone else? Would it be easy to follow? Would you rather lead or follow? Why did you answer the way you did?
4. Describe a good leader. What qualities does it take to lead well? Who has demonstrated great leadership and gained your trust as a follower? Describe a good follower. What qualities must a good follower demonstrate? Who has been an example to you of being a good follower?
5. Everyone follows someone or something and listens to a voice that leads and directs their path. Who are you following? Who are you listening to? Who is your shepherd?
6. The big question from Psalm 23 is "If you trust God to get you through the wilderness, what steps can you take to trust God more?" What is your answer to this big question?
