Digging Deeper: Group Questions & Personal Reflection

1. Finish this sentence: "To me, the Gospel is..." Why is it important to have an understanding of the Gospel?
2. Think carefully about anything small or large that could have the potential of being your master. Name it. Pray that it will either be broken from your life or that you will be prevented from engaging with it. Talk about it openly with your group.
3. This is a hard one. Read 1 Corinthians 6:12. Can you remember a time when your decisions would have been better had you NOT done what you had the right to do as a follower of Christ?
4. What are the things you do in life that draw you closer in your relationship with Jesus? How could you improve that relationship? As a group, how can you encourage each other in this area?
5. Name three gray areas that are difficult for you to navigate. Now, discuss in your group how to improve your decision making and how to avoid the gray.
